PART-A

5.1.5 The Institution has a transparent mechanism for timely redressal of student grievances including sexual harassment and ragging cases

Guidelines of statutory/regulatory bodies (AICTE, Visvesaraya Technological University, and Government of Karnataka) are effectively implemented by forming the following Committees

1. Grievance Redressal Committee
2. Internal Complaints Committee (Formerly Anti-sexual Harassment committee)
3. Anti ragging Committee

MITE is committed to provide safe, fair and harmonious learning and working environment to the students and staff. In this regard, the Grievance Redressal Committee has been constituted at MITE as per the UGC/ AICTE Regulations. The committee has adopted a well defined mechanism for redressal of the grievances.

Internal Complaints Committee (Formerly Anti-sexual Harassment committee) is established to maintain a congenial atmosphere at the Institute. The committee has been working to raise awareness on gender equality issues.

Anti ragging Committee is formed to take all necessary measures for prevention of ragging inside the Campus/ Hostels. The committee brings awareness to all students about the actions that can be taken against those indulging in ragging. It also considers the complaints received from the students and conduct enquiry and recommends the punishment for the offenders.

The Organization wide awareness and undertakings on policies is made by displaying the notices in prominent places like department notice board, class rooms, hostel notice board, College bus, food court etc. The Internal compliant committee, Antiragging committee and Grievance redressal committee meetings are conducted to resolve the student grievances. Antiragging squads are also formed to curb the ragging. They also visit the hostel to make sure every student is comfortable.

The Institute has provision for online submission of grievance through the institute ERP software. The students can submit their grievance through the online facility provided through the ERP software. Further, the students can submit their grievance offline in the complaint box kept in the administrative office.

5.1.5 The Institution has a transparent mechanism for timely redressal of student Grievances including sexual harassment and ragging cases

- f) The All India Council for technical Education, the Central Government or the agency authorized for the purpose shall maintain an appropriate data base to be created out of affidavits, affirmed by each student and his/her parents/guardians and stored electronically by the institution; and such database shall also function as a record of ragging complaints received, and the status of the action taken thereon.
- g) The All India Council for technical Education, the Central Government or the agency authorized for the purpose shall make available the database to a non-governmental agency to be nominated by the Central Government, to build confidence in the public and also to provide information of non compliance with these Regulations to the Councils and to such bodies as may be authorized by the All India Council for technical Education/Central Government.

11. The All India Council for technical Education shall take the following regulatory steps, namely;

- a) The All India Council for technical Education shall make it mandatory for the institutions to incorporate in their prospectus, the directions of the Central Government or the State Level Monitoring Committee with regard to prohibition and consequences of ragging, and that non-compliance with these Regulations and directions so provided, shall be considered as lowering of academic standards by the institution, therefore making it liable for appropriate action.
- b) The All India Council for technical Education shall verify that the institutions strictly comply with the requirement of getting the affidavits from the students and their parents/guardians as envisaged under these Regulations.
- c) The All India Council for technical Education shall include a specific condition in the Utilization Certificate, in respect of any financial assistance or grants-in-aid to any institution under any of the general or special schemes of the All India Council for technical Education, that the institution has complied with the anti-ragging measures.

- d) Any incident of ragging in an institution shall adversely affect its accreditation, ranking or grading by National Board of Accreditation or by any other authorised accreditation agencies while assessing the institution for accreditation, ranking or grading purposes.
- e) The All India Council for technical Education shall constitute an Inter-Council Committee, consisting of representatives of the various Councils, the Non-Governmental agency responsible for monitoring the database maintained by the All India Council for technical Education/Central Government and such other bodies in higher education, to coordinate and monitor the anti-ragging measures in institutions across the country and to make recommendations from time to time; and shall meet at least once in six months each year.
- f) The All India Council for technical Education shall institute an Anti-Ragging Cell within the AICTE as an institutional mechanism to provide secretarial support for collection of information and monitoring, and to coordinate with the State Level Monitoring Cells and University Level Committees for effective implementation of anti-ragging measures, and the Cell shall also coordinate with the Non-Governmental agency responsible for monitoring the database maintained by the All India Council for technical Education/central Government.

1. Government have taken note of the grave menace of ragging prevalent in the Educational Institutions especially in the Colleges running Medical, Dental and Engineering Professional courses and in Polytechnics and Pharmacy Colleges, in the past, resulting in mental retardation and committing suicides by the students besides subjecting them to physical and mental torture as a sequel to such inhuman and perverse practice. With a view to root out such an indelible and barbaric system by imposing extreme punishments on the students who have indulged in ragging in Section 116 of the Karnataka Education Act, 1983 (Karnataka Act No. 1 of 1995) ragging has been totally prohibited. Any person who contravenes such a provision shall be liable for punishment with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to 2000 Rupees or with both. The expression ragging has been defined in sub-section (29) of Section 2 of the said Act. The said Section 116 and 2 (29) read as under:

Karnataka Education Act, 1983 (Karnataka Act No. 1 of 1995)

Section 116: - Penalty for Ragging:-

- (1) No person who is a student in an educational institution including an institution under the direct management of the University or of the Central Government shall commit ragging.
- (2) Any person who contravenes sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees or with both.

Section 2 (29):-

"Ragging" means causing, inducing, compelling or forcing a student, whether by way of a practical joke or otherwise, to do any act which detracts from human dignity or violated his person or exposes him to ridicule or to forbear from doing any lawful act, by intimidating wrongfully restraining, wrongfully confining, or injuring him or by using criminal force to him or by holding out to him any treat of such intimidation, wrongful restraint, wrongful confinement, injury or the use of criminal force."

2. In addition to considering it as punishable offence under the said Section 116, the said offence shall also be punishable under Sections 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 302, 305, 306, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 346, 347, 354, 359, 368, 448, 451, and 506 of Indian Penal Code (IPC) entailing inflictment of extreme punishment, in terms of standing order No. 940 of Director General & Inspector General of Police.

3. Under Sub-section (1) of Section 137 of the Karnataka Education Act, 1983, Courts can take cognisance of any offence punishable under Section 116. Under sub-section (2) of Section 137, all offences punishable under Section 116 shall be investigated by an officer of and above the rank of Inspector of Police. It shall be a cognizable and non-bailable offence. In addition to it under the provisions of various Sections of the IPC adverted to above, the offenders shall be liable for arrest without warrant. Such offenders shall be arrested on non-bailable warrants. // Apart from it under Section 138 of the Karnataka Education Act, 1983 whoever instigates or abets the commission of an offence of ragging shall be also liable for punishment with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend 2000 rupees or with both.)

4. // Ragging menace is a criminal offence and such of the students who are involved in such obnoxious practice are liable to be rusticated from the College. In the event of such of the students who are in the final year and cannot be thrown out of the college for any reason there shall be embossed in their degree certificates and transfer certificates and also the conduct/character certificate to the effect that he had been indulged in ragging in BOLD letters. Added to it, the father, mother, parents and the Principal of the College as also the Head of the Department in which such a student was prosecuting his studies shall also be held liable. /

5. In order to eradicate the menace of ragging from root level, the following specific norms and guidelines are laid down:-

- (1) Every College shall display a big board drawing the attention of the students on the campus, highlighting the provisions of the above law and the deterrent punishment that could be awarded for their violation in brief. It shall also be explicitly indicated that such of the students indulged in ragging are liable for rustication. In addition to it, the Principals, Vice-principal and the heads of the Department shall address the senior students at frequent intervals to create the knowledge, awareness and vigilance.

- (2) If the incidence of ragging occurs in any college or hostel, the Principal, Vice-principal or the concerned head of the department of the College and the warden or the Deputy Warden of the hostel shall lodge a formal complaint expeditiously without any delay in the jurisdictional police Station. No scope shall be given either for not lodging a complaint in the police station or for whatever reasons nor efforts be made to suppress such cases.
- (3) Separate portion shall be set apart in the hostel of every college to accommodate such of the students who are admitted newly to the first year courses. Abundant caution should be taken to prevent entry of senior students within the environs of such portion. It should be ensured that no junior students shall be associated with the senior students. If ragging takes place either in the hostel campus or in the room, then the concerned Warden or Deputy Warden incharge of the hostels will be made directly responsible.
- (4) Precaution should be taken to avert creation of a situation conducive for indulgence of ragging either in the hostel or in the College. The concerned Principal, Vice-principal, Heads of the Department and other Lecturers shall every day make sure that no such untoward incidents like ragging have taken place. Precautionary measures shall be taken to ensure that no incidents like ragging, teasing, etc. will take place. The Principal, Vice-principal, Head of the Department and the Lecturer of the concerned Section shall be directly held responsible for such incidents.
- (5) A Review Committee under the leadership of the Principal shall be constituted in every college. The following will be the composition of the Committee.-

- | | |
|---|---------------|
| (i) Principal of the College. | ... Chairman. |
| (ii) Vice-Principal of the College. | ... Member. |
| (iii) Head of the Department. | ... Member |
| (iv) Senior most Professor | ... Member. |
| (v) Warden/Deputy-warden of the Hostel. | ... Member. |

- (vi) Two students' leaders. ... Members.
- (vii) Inspector/Sub-Inspector of the jurisdictional police Station. ... Member.

The Committee should meet periodically including every Saturday though it is an holiday and review the situation and initiate effective measures. Depending upon the necessity the Committee shall also meet in the hostel. The committee as a whole or in separate group shall undertake surprise visits to Colleges and Hostels frequently and make sure that no incidents of ragging have been taking place.

- (6) Apart from the Review Committee, every College shall constitute a Flying squad under the chairmanship of the Head of the Department. The composition of the Flying Squad will be as under:-

- (i) Head of the Department. ... Chairman
- (ii) Professor/Assistant Professor. ... Member.
- (iii) Lecturers. ... Members.
- (iv) Two senior students selected by The Head of the Department. ... Members.
- (v) Warden/Deputy-warden of the Hostel. ... Member.

The Flying squad continuously and at all times shall take precautionary measures to see that no ragging takes place inside the class room, within the college premises, hostel premises and other outside surrounding places. The Flying Squad will be personally held responsible for occurrence of ragging in any form and of any kind. If necessary, the help of the local police shall be availed for the total elimination of the ragging.

- 6. Concerned Heads of Departments of Government like the Director of Technical Education, Director of Medical Education, Director of Indian Systems of Medicines, Controller of Drugs, Director of Collegiate Education, Regional Joint Directors of Collegiate Education , Registrars of Universities, Assistant Commissioners of Police/Deputy Superintendents of Police shall often visit the colleges and hostels to ensure that there has not been any scope of incidence of ragging.

7. Failure to combat ragging even in spite of the afore-mentioned sequences, then it would become inevitable to disaffiliate the college. If any of the hostels fail to eradicate the ragging in toto, then such hostels will have to be closed. Therefore with a view to eliminate the menace of ragging from its root level, every individual shall extend the full co-operation for constructive action plan to make Karnataka a model State.

Sub: Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Colleges under VTU – reg...

Ragging refers to an act that violates the dignity of a person. It is a matter of shame that even though ragging has been criticized for decades, we still come across such incidents of inhuman torture. As a result, many students give up their studies and go back home, some lose their mental balance, and some are seriously injured. The scourge of ragging which corrodes the vitals of our campuses needs to be curbed.

In this regard, it is brought to the notice of all the colleges, students and other stake holders that ragging is a criminal offence and UGC, AICTE & Government has framed regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions.

In this respect, the following are uploaded to VTU website www.vtu.ac.in

1. UGC Regulations , 2009
2. AICTE Regulations, 2009
3. AICTE Public Notice Anti Ragging/ 08(06)/2012
4. AICTE Public Notice Advt. No. AR/05(04)/2012
5. Karnataka State Govt. Circular

As per the same, the Anti Ragging Committee and Anti Ragging Squads are to be constituted in the colleges and information about the same shall be given wide circulation about the same. The names of members of the committee with their contact numbers shall be uploaded to college website. The committees shall have to act vigilantly and take immediate needful action.

During admission of students, the affidavits avowing not to indulge in ragging by student and parent shall be obtained, without fail.

ANY OCCURRENCE OF THE INCIDENT OF RAGGING AND ACTION TAKEN THEREON SHALL BE REPORTED TO THE UNIVERSITY, IMMEDIATELY.

Violation of the norms of by the Colleges may attract punitive actions against the colleges as specified in the Anti Ragging Regulations of UGC and AICTE.

Subject: Supreme Court of India Orders - Curbing Ragging in Educational Institutions — Inclusion of No of Ragging Incidents in Prospectus/Brochures.

Sir/Madam,

In continuation of this Office letter of even no. dated 03.03.2008, on the above subject, I am directed to say that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in SLP (C) No.24295/2004 in the matter of University of Kerala v/s Council of Principals, Colleges of Kerala and others, the Apex Court has expressed displeasure on the incidents of ragging in the educational institutions despite directions to prevent such incidents in educational institutions.

(2) In the last hearing held on 10th December, 2007 in the case related to prevention of ragging in higher educational institutions the Supreme Court has expressed concern over the incidence of ragging occurring in higher educational institutions and the need to eliminating it altogether. Accordingly, as directed by the Court, instructions have been issued by the regulatory bodies like UGC/ AICTE/ MCI etc., for inclusion of the clause in the prospectus regarding punishment of students with expulsion etc, if found guilty of ragging. The Committee set up by the Supreme Court to Monitor the measures being taken to prevent ragging has now decided that along with the number of cases of ragging in the previous academic session, the punishments awarded to those found guilty should also be mentioned in the brochures/prospectus of the higher educational institution.

(3) It may also be stated that the Report of the Raghavan Committee constituted as per directions of the Supreme Court of India to give suggestions on means of prevention of ragging in educational institutions, is already posted on UGC web site www.ugc.ac.in The prescribed format for compliance report already circulated vide UGC office letter of even number dated 20th November, 2007.

Mechanisms for submission of online/offline students' grievances

Mechanism for Submission of Grievance

The institute has provision for online submission of grievance through the institute ERP software. The students can submit their grievance through online facility provided through the ERP software. Further, students can submit their grievance offline through the complaint box kept in the administrative office. The mechanism for handling the grievances are as follows.

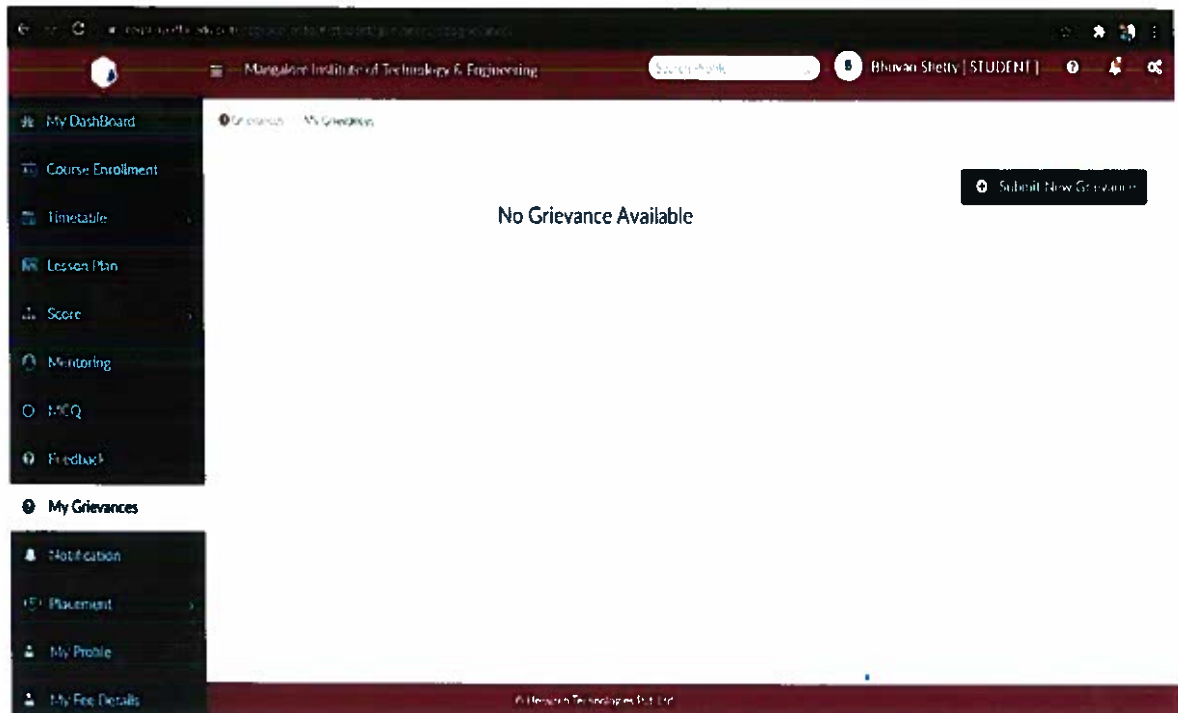

Step 1: Students submits the grievances either using the online or offline facility.

Step 2: The grievances are discussed in the meeting of the respective committees to resolve issue. Further, the student who raised the issue is also called for discussion if required.

Step 3: All these are recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the respective committee and action is taken to resolve the raised issue.

Step 4: The action taken report is maintained.
