1	06/01/2024	4MT22BA061	Namratha	There have been recurring difficulties for the student in understanding certain specific courses.	It was suggested to the student that, unlike theoretical subjects where concepts can be learned through reading and lectures, practical subjects require regular hands-on practice. It was noted that the student struggles with questions that have not been practiced sufficiently, indicating a need for more consistent and thorough practice sessions along with referring old question papers. The outcome of this was that the student improved substantially in terms of time management and enhanced exam performance.
2	09/02/2024	4MT22BA118	Vinutha N B	The student had a problem of being irregular to the college.	The student frequently faces irregularity due to health issues. To address this, it is recommended that the student seek medical advice to manage their health better and explore alternative ways to keep up with coursework, such as accessing recorded lectures in NPTEL or speaking to faculties to get a grip on the subject. The outcome is Improved Health Management resulting in better academic progress.

1	14/06/2024	4MT22BA111	Sushma	Facing difficulty in understanding finance subjects. Problem with presentation as communication & confidence is lacking.	Counseled and motivated to improve communication by watching videos and writing and practicing. Also suggested to solve more finance problems for better understanding. Her IA performance is IA – II was much better compared to IA –I, especially in finance subject. Her presentation throughout the semester was very good where the improved communication & confidence was visible.
2	01/07/2024	4MT22BA094	Shoaleen Pearl Mendonsa	She had difficulty in understanding marketing & IT subjects. She lacks attention and finds herself disconnected after few minutes of listening to class.	Counseling was done and suggested her to practice activities that require more concentration. Her subject marks of IA -I & IA-II were satisfactory except that of LSCM wherein she failed. After the second mentoring session and following the suggestion to refer lot of books and improve concentration, she performed better in SEE.
