UGC Anti-Ragging Oath

“I solemnly affirm that I will not participate in or support any form of ragging. I pledge never to cause physical, emotional, or psychological harm to any student. I shall always treat my fellow students with dignity, equality, and respect. If I witness any act of ragging, I will not remain silent - I will raise my voice and report it to the Anti Ragging Committee or authorities. I understand that ragging is a punishable offense under law, and I commit to abide by all rules and regulations set forth by UGC and my institution. Together, as one student community, we take this oath to create a campus free from fear, filled with friendship, and driven by respect.”
