CIRCULAR

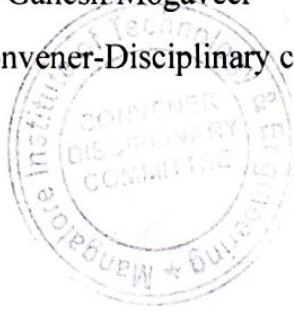

It has been observed that some students continue to use mobile phones within the ~~academic~~ premises despite prior instructions and repeated reminders.

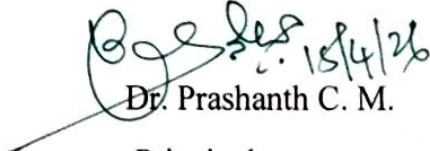

All students are hereby once again informed that the use of mobile phones is strictly prohibited in academic premises. Keeping mobile phones in switched-on mode, flight mode, or silent mode during class hours is strictly prohibited. Students who fail to comply with this code of conduct will face strict disciplinary action.

A vigilance drive will be conducted on a regular basis to ensure strict compliance. Any mobile phone found in possession or use in violation of the rules during this drive or anytime during college hours will be confiscated and will be returned only upon completion of the semester. In view of this first vigilance drive will be conducted after 22nd April 2026.

This circular serves as a final warning. All students are instructed to strictly adhere to the rules and maintain discipline within the campus.
