Dative Cases and Numerals (Number System in Kannada)

Dative Case: Case used to express direction towards an indirect object

Examples:

- He gave an assignment to me.
- He wrote the letter for her.
- He made a lot of money for me
- He gave a watch to her.

Ordinal Numerals and Plural Markers

Ordinal Numerals: Numbers that are used to represent the rank or position of an object or a person are known as ordinal numbers.

For example, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and so on.

Plural Markers: A plural noun is a word that indicates there is more than one of a noun. Singular nouns are words that mean there is only one of that noun.

For example, ‘Tiger – Tigers’.

An irregular plural noun is a noun that doesn’t follow the usual ‘regular’ rules of English grammar.

For example, ‘child – children’

Defective / Negative Verbs and Colour Adjectives

Defective / Negative Verbs: defective verb is a traditional term for a verb that doesn't exhibit all the typical forms of a conventional verb.

For example, can, could, may, might, must, ought, shall, should, will, and would

Colour Adjectives:

For example, colored. varied. rainbow. vibrant. various. multicolored. brilliant. Bold -

Bright; vivid. Bright - Brilliant in color. Brilliant - Vivid; intense. Colorful - Full of vivid colors.
